CONFERENCE AND INNOVATION EXHIBITIONS ANNOUNCEMENT

Introduction

Mutare Teachers' College will be hosting its 4th National Research Conference and Innovation Exhibitions on 25-26 July 2025 at Mutare Teachers College. Consistent with the National Development Strategy 1 (NDS1), the event epitomizes the essence of collaboration, innovation and shared visions. The college thus invites papers from stakeholders across sectors of the economy. Prominent adjudicators will decide on prizes for winners of this event. Successful papers will be considered for publishing.

Conference Objectives

- Cross pollination of ideas between researchers and end users in education.
- Highlighting community-based research and innovation outputs.
- Creating an inclusive learning platform for academics and entrepreneurs.
- Creating synergies between the institution and the educational fraternity.

Conference theme

Promoting Heritage-based innovations and industrialization to drive economic growth and sustainable development.

Subthemes

- ❖ Innovation and community engagement
- ❖ Industrialization and community collaboration
- ❖ Work integrated learning assessment
- ❖ Curriculum transformation
- ❖ Research and community involvement
- ❖ Health and wellness
- ❖ ICT usage in Educational institutions
- ❖ Quality assurance in Education

Submissions

The college invites papers aligned to the conference theme and sub-themes from researchers, academics, business executives, cultural experts, civil society, community leaders, health experts, scientists, entrepreneurs, and artists.
